Neusalz

1. Up to February 1951, a multi-story apartment house on the main street of Neusalz (O 52/B 48) quartered a Soviet komendatura. Two sentries stood guard in front of the building. Soviet marching columns and individual soldiers were [redacted] in the city. The location of the billets was not identified. Members of the 1928 through 1930 classes were registered for the draft in Neusalz in July and August 1951, members of the 1920 through 1924 classes in the fall of 1950. Horses were also registered in the fall of 1950. The registration committee consisted of Poles and Soviets, wearing uniforms. No horses were known to be drafted.

Kozuchow

25X1X 2. Polish soldiers [redacted] walking on the streets of Kozuchow (Freystadt, O 52/B 47) individually as well as in groups. The 20 to 25-year-old soldiers wore brown uniforms with polished buttons; round, cornered or garrison caps mounting Polish eagle emblems; long trousers and, partially, wrap puttees. The branch of service of the troops was not identified. [redacted] the housing situation was fairly bad due to increased occupation and the requisition of numerous houses in the summer of 1950.
